

Hispanic Heritage Month

Check some of the activities done by our teachers.

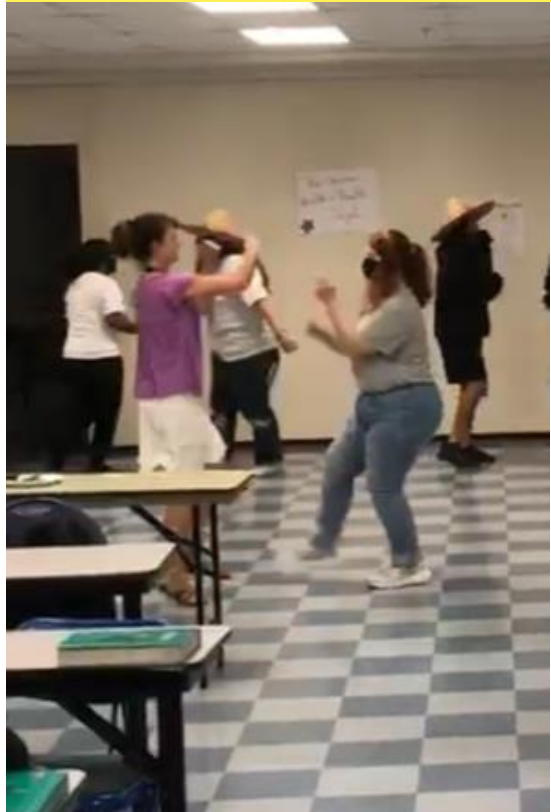

Ms. Danielle Rosales
Dance Teacher

Ms. Rosales invited her students to do some calaca face paintings and to dress up in traditional Mexican clothing. They also danced to the Payaso De Rodeo.

Thank you, Erin Tisi, Miranda Serna-Atienzo, and Daniela Pacheco.

La Raspa

Mrs. White (P.E./Health teacher) taught her students to dance La Raspa, Mexican Hat Dance. Students had sombreros and maracas too. They learned and had fun.

Sandra Cisneros - Writer

"Sandra Cisneros was born on December 20, 1954, in Chicago, Illinois. Although her parents met in Chicago, they were both from Mexico. They had seven children, but Cisneros was the only girl."

The English department read, Sandra Cisneros' work. "It has been a focal point for our last "fiction signpost", including the enrichment opportunity there." Mr. Steven Fleissner, English Teacher.

Lucha Libre Masks

Mrs. Machelor's Spanish 2 classes are creating Lucha Libre masks with paper mache as they describe it in Spanish.

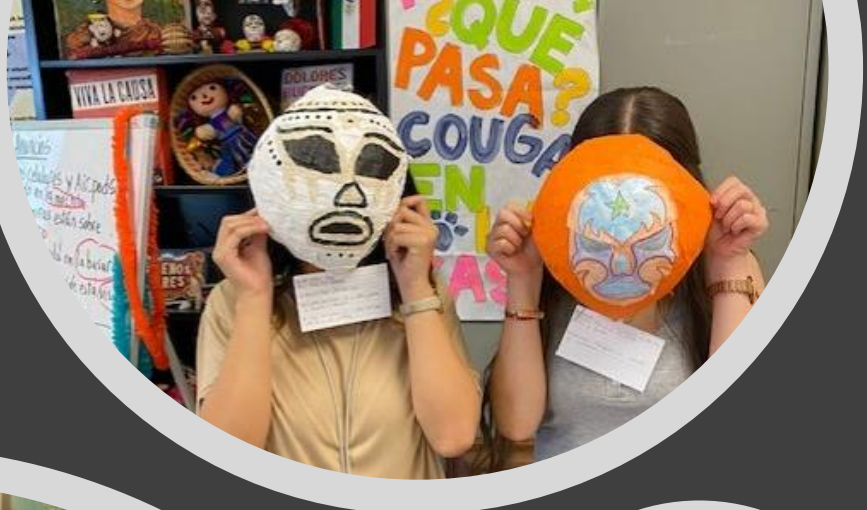

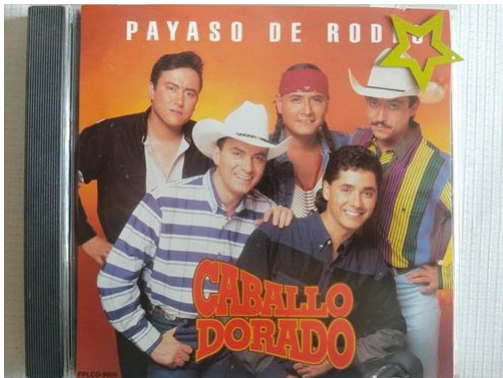

First finalized Lucha Libre mask.
