

Economics

Grading Scale:

Required text: Economics Principles in Action
Classroom books will be available for daily use.

A – 100-90
B – 89-80
C – 79-70
D – 69-60
F – 59 and below

Required material: Computer, pen, pencil, paper (Bring these EVERY DAY!!)

- This senior level class will cover economic systems, markets, businesses, banking, and government within the economy
- Unit 1 covers chapters 1-3 Introduction to Economics
Unit 2 covers chapters 4, 5, 6 and 7 How Markets Work
Unit 3 covers chapters 8 & 9 Business and Labor
Unit 4 covers chapters 10 & 11 Money, Banking, and Finance
Unit 5 covers chapters 14-16 Government and the Economy
The final exam is comprehensive and in two parts: multiple choice and essay
Exams and quizzes may include paper copies and / or electronic assessments.
- The penalty for cheating on any assignment, quiz, or exam is a zero + a referral.
Plagiarism will result in a zero + a referral. See RUA
- Homework assignments include worksheets and questions from the textbook. You must do the homework in order to be successful in this class. Electronic submission of assignments is a component of the course. See RUA
- Students are required to take notes during lectures and discussions. Students are required to complete in-class tasks related to implementing the new Common Core standards.
- Turn cell phones off and put them away or risk having them confiscated. Computers are a tool for the course and must be used appropriately. See RUA
- Attendance is crucial to your success. I follow the attendance / tardy policy. If you miss too many days you will lose credit and / or fail the course.
- This class is required for graduation please follow the rules for your success in this class.

Parent Signature

Date

Student Signature

Date