Harassment, Sexual U.S. Department of Education, Office of Civil Rights, Revised Sexual Harassment Guidance: Harassment of Students by School Employees, Other Students, or Third Parties, Title IX, January 2001: Sexual harassment is unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature that denies or limits a student’s ability to participate in or to receive benefits, services, or opportunities in the school’s program. It can include unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal, nonverbal, or physical conduct of a sexual nature. Because sexual harassment of students is a form of sex discrimination prohibited by Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, it is governed by this statute and corresponding guidance. Title IX applies to any public or private school receiving federal funding. Does not include legitimate nonsexual touching or other nonsexual conduct, for example, a high school athletic coach hugging a student who made a goal or a kindergarten teacher’s consoling hug for a child with a skinned knee. Relevant factors in determining whether behavior rises to the level of sexual harassment include:• The degree to which the conduct affected one or more students’ education• The type, frequency and duration of the conduct• The identity of and relationship between the alleged harasser and the subject or subjects of the harassment• The number of individuals involved• The age and sex of the alleged harasser and the subject or subjects of the harassment• The size of the school, location of the incidents, and the context in which they occurred • Other incidents at the school	10 + Day community Break out of school to recommend Long Term Suspension with Counseling

4. "Firearm" means any loaded or unloaded handgun, pistol, revolver, rifle, shotgun, or other weapon that will expel, is designed to expel, or may readily be converted to expel a projectile by the action of an explosive. Firearm does not include a firearm in permanently inoperable condition. The following is paraphrased from: 18 U.S.C. 921 Firearm: Any weapon, including a starter gun, which will be or is designed to or may be readily converted to expel a projectile by the action of an explosive. This includes the frame or receiver of any such weapon, any firearm muffler or silencer or any destructive device. This definition does not include antique firearms. Other Firearms – Firearms other than handguns, rifles or shotguns including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Any weapon (including a starter gun) which will or is designed to or may readily be converted to expel a projectile by the action of any explosive. The frame or receiver of any weapon described above; Any firearm muffler or firearm silencer; Any destructive device, which includes: Any explosive, incendiary, or poison gas; Bomb, Grenade, Rocket having a propellant charge of more than four ounces; Missile having an explosive or incendiary charge of more than one-quarter ounce; Mine or Similar device; Any weapon which will, or which may be readily converted to, expel a projectile by the action of an explosive or other propellant, and which has any barrel with a bore of more than one-half inch in diameter; Any combination or parts either designed or intended for use in converting any device into any destructive device described in the two immediately preceding examples, and from which a destructive device may be readily assembled. (This definition does not apply to items such as toy guns, cap guns, bb guns, and pellet guns.) Destructive Device: A category of firearm that includes an explosive, combustible, or poisonous gas. This includes bombs, grenades, mines, and rockets. Any type of weapon (other than a shotgun or a shotgun shell which is generally recognized as particularly suitable for sporting purposes) which will, or which may be readily converted to expel a projectile by the action of an explosive or other propellant; and which has any barrel with a bore of more than one-half inch in diameter, and any combination of parts either designed or intended for use in converting any device into a destructive device or from which a destructive device may be readily assembled. The term "destructive device" shall not include any device which is designed or redesigned for use as a weapon. A.R.S. §13-105.11 Dangerous instrument: Anything that under the circumstances in which it is used, attempted to be used or threatened to be used is readily capable of causing death or serious physical injury.	Immediate police notification
